

SERIAL RAPIST ON THE LOOSE!

ALL WOMEN - WATCH YOUR BACK!

RAPED IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD!

This is a call for all women to watch their backs! There is a serial rapist in your neighborhood and he could show-up anywhere!

On Tuesday, November 26, 2013, at 9:00 PM, our friend was Thanksgiving shopping with her mother. They left in separate cars from Publix and our friend stopped at a convenient store in the Touchton/Belfort/Hogan/Southside area to buy a soda when she was grabbed from behind, dragged to his car and viciously and violently raped – right in the parking lot. We cannot allow him to do this to anyone else. This is why we are putting this neighborhood on alert.

ReClaim Global works exclusively with victims of sexual violence. Our vast experience in this field makes us believe that the vile and intentional manner of this rape has ALL the earmarks of a serial rapist, one who is lying in wait for unsuspecting women.

WOMEN - BE ON THE ALERT! BE SAFE! HELP US CATCH HIM!

IF YOU HAVE ANY INFORMATION, PLEASE CALL

The Jacksonville Sheriff's Office, Sexual Crime Unit: 904-630-2168

This event is sponsored by ReClaim Global. We are working along side the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and we believe that they are doing everything they can to catch this rapist. However, as an advocacy group against sexual crimes, we also have a responsibility to alert all women that a serial rapist is on the loose in your neighborhood.
